

The aim of the Society, which was formed in 1909, is to foster an interest in the history, antiquities and folk-lore of Ceredigion. A number of lectures is arranged each year and also an annual excursion. Membership of the Society includes a copy of the Society's journal, Ceredigion, which contains the text of lectures delivered to the Society and also articles written specifically for it. Anyone who would like to know more about the Society should write to the Membership Secretary. A Membership form appears below.
